

Commissioning Team Leader - Denver

Ambient Energy is seeking a Commissioning Team Leader to lead staff in both our Denver and San Francisco offices. If you fit this description, please consider applying today!

- Motivated....by Ambient Energy's vision to improve the social and environmental impact of buildings by making sure buildings work well, are thermally comfortable and save energy
- Innovative....developing continual improvements with the commissioning team that save time and energy
- Technical....has industry experience to provide great technical reviews for the team and responses to project team questions; experienced in building controls, energy efficiency, mechanical and electrical design
- Organized....has experience and skills in managing project budgets and schedules, developing proposals and scopes of work; is detailed oriented
- Relationship Manager....enjoys maintaining long term relationships with our key clients and developing new ones

Minimum Requirements

- Minimum four years of professional experience working as a Commissioning Engineer and/or Design Engineer plus minimum four years of professional experience working as a Commissioning Engineer.
- Experience working on at least 2 LEED projects.
- Some travel is required, approximately 10%-25%, mostly in the West and Mountain West regions.
- Required: BS in Mechanical, Architectural Engineering or Electrical Engineering. PE. LEED-AP. CxA, CCP or QCxP.
- Preferred: MS, CEM.

Salary Range

- Annual salary range is between $100,000 - $130,000